

Gergana Ivanova
Junior Programme Officer
Parliamentary Network on the World Bank

Ms. Ivanova holds a B.A. in Political Science and Economics from McGill University in Montreal, Canada and a M.A. in European Economy from the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium.

In her capacity as PNoWB's Junior Programme Officer in the Paris-based secretariat, Ms. Ivanova researches and reports on legislative developments and election results in parliaments around the world; maintains contact with PNoWB members; and is responsible for keeping the Network's membership list accurate and up to date. In addition, she helps to plan and provide follow-up on the Network's annual conference, regular field visits and other activities. Ms. Ivanova edits PNoWB's quarterly News publication and provides drafting support to the Network's Policy Officer and programmatic support to the Head of Secretariat.

Prior to her appointment at the PNoWB Secretariat, Ms. Ivanova worked in European affairs for Hill & Knowlton in Brussels, focusing on issues including trade in agriculture, public health in developing countries and climate change. She has also worked to support regulatory measures to fight corruption in the private and public sector and the monitoring of trade in counterfeit products. Ms. Ivanova also completed a blue-book internship at the European Commission, Directorate General for Trade.
